MONCREIF HAS BIG KILLING

COUP OF OLD-FASHIONED SORT BROUGHT OFF WITH VENETA STROME.

Fast Four-Year-Old Maiden That Had Never Before Started Proves Easy Winner After Being Backed Down from Long Odds.

Jacksonville, Fla., February 25.—One of the biggest killings pulled off here this winter was made when Veneta Strome ran away from a band of fast sprinters in the fourth race at Moncreif Park this afternoon. Veneta Strome is a four-year-old maiden owned by a local man named C. W. Richardson that has been kept under cover for two years. As far back as last summer it was known that this was a first-class race mare, but she was apparently forgotten by the rank and file and the result was that her owners and his connections were enabled to obtain as good as 10 to 1 against the filly. It was the first start in the filly's career. Despite the strong support accorded the Chinn entry. Veneta Strome's price had been forced down to 5 to 2 by post time. When it came to the running, there was nothing to it but Veneta Strome. Musgrave rushed her to the front soon after the start and, after drawing away into an easy lead of a couple of lengths, found no trouble in retaining that advantage for the remainder of the trip. Report is that her handbooks throughout the country were also trimmed. The track was deep and heavy, but despite the uncertain going, three favorites won. Jockeys Powers and Gaaz each piloted two winners. While riding Jno. Reardon in the fourth race, jockey Obert received a gash on his leg from the spur of another jockey. The wound prevented him from riding in the last two races and Ganz was substituted on Tres Joli and Poconoke, both of which woa.

After spending a night in the county fail, Mrs. Laura Gimore, wife of Robert Gimore, a horse owner and trainer at Moncreif Park, was arraigned this morning before Justice of the Peace L. D. Howell and, when she pleaded not guilty to a charge of hibol. was: allowed to go under bond of $500. fursheld by D. H. MMMan. The charge grew out of the publication and distribution of a circular signed by Mrs. Gilmore which accused Manager Brown and his associates with all manner of alloyed "crookedness" and otherwise sought to east reflection upon their integrity. This circula

FIRST CALL ON GARNER SOLD.

FIRST CALL ON GARNER SOLD.

El Paso, Tex.. February 25.—The report of yesterday that Charlie Hargrave, favorite for the Juarez Derby, had gone wrong and had been declared out of that rich fixture, is confirmed. The trouble is in the colt's knees. Trainer Max Hirseh believes that with proper care the crack California colt will recover and train satisfactorily for autumn racing in the cast. There is really no telling how good this much-abused son of Solitaire II. was. As a yearling A. B. Spreckels. his breeder, timed him several quarters in 22 seconds.

Another important item of news developed today is that first call on Guy Garner, the best lightweight jockey development of the Juarez meeting, has been sold to Messrs. Andrew Miller and Thomas Welsh for the metropolitan season of 1910. Garner is a brother of "Skeets" Garner, who rode with considerable success for John A. Drake a few years ago. This latest member of the Jowa family of riders to achieve distinction is sixteen years old and weighs about 89 pounds. His apprentice allowance will expire about the middle of June next. No special feature was programmed today at Terrazas Park. It was an all-around good overnight card and developed excellent sport. Four favorites, all at good prices, were successful.

In the fourth race two horses were left at the post, and the others went away from the barrier in straggling fashion. Hattie Garrett, a 100 to 1 chance, came close to winning after leading under a pull to the last stride, when she was headed by Beau Man. Jolly Execute and Gypsy King finished beaten off. Joily has developed into a confirmed rogue and could have won the race with ease but for sulking and running out on the turns.

MORE STALLIONS FOR BREEDING BUREAU.

Montreal, Que., February 25.—The Canadían Bureau of Breeding has received two more fine thoroughbred stallions by donation. R. Angarola has given the well-known stake horse, High Range, and J. F. Fitzsimmons has donated the good horse, Oghwaga, by Rockton, dam Rock Rose. Both are young horses of substance and well suited for bureau work. High Range was bred by John E, Madden at Hamburg Place, Lexington, Ky. He is by Galore, a son of Galopin, the sire of St. Simon. His dam is Matterborn, by Hinyar. Matterborn traces back to Monte Rosa, by Mr. Pickwick, and to Mountain Range, by Longfellow.

Oghwaga was bred by the Sanfords at the Hurricama Stud in New York State and is by Rockton, by Meddler, out of Rock Rose, the dam of Fort Hunter. This makes a total of seven stallions received by the bureau this year.

GOSSIP FROM EASTERN SOURCES.

New York, February 25.—Jockey Joe Notter is egularly at work exercising James R. Keene's orsess at Sheepshead Bay. Notter, who rode in Jermany last year, weighs less than 125 pounds, and will be able to ride at much less than that. Je has not grown tall and is a marvel of muscle, by the has made no engagement for the oming season. His employment at Mr. Keene's table is due to his former connection with the establishment.

H. A. Bonine, a well-known patron of hunt meetings, has bought the horse Clovercrest, half-brother to the noted jumper, Land of Clover, and will devote him to cross-country work.

The license committee of the Jockey Club stew ards will meet March 3 to act on applications of trainers and jockeys for licenses.

MORE EASTERN STAKES ANNOUNCED

Even Dozen to Be Decided at Aqueduct Spring Meeting-Saratoga to Have Imposing Array.

New York, February 25.—Stakes have been announced for the spring meeting of the Queens County Jockey Club at Aqueduct. It is the meeting that opens the New York season, April 15, and the stakes made public today will close March 15. The list takes in an even dozen fixtures, with few exceptions renewals of those offered at the spring meeting of 1508. There was no meeting at Aqueduct last year, One of the notable changes is that no steeplechase stakes are offered and it suggests that the Queens County Jockey Club will not have cross-country races at its first meeting. They were eliminated from the fall meeting last year and this season the meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club at Pimlico, where steeplechases form an important part of each day's program, will be such a dangerous competitor for the jumpers that probably the field will not be used. Of the dozen stakes just half of the number are for horses three years old and over. Two are for three-year-olds and the remaining four are for two-year-olds.

The Carter Handicap, the best of the races for the older horses, is renewed, but, instead of being a $10,000 affair, it is a seven-eighths dash with a guaranteed value of $2,500. The other races for three-year-olds and over are the Queens County Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed, seven furlongs; Pecconic Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed, one mile: Freeport Handicap, $1,500 guaranteed, six furlongs; Rockaway Selling Stakes, $1,000 guaranteed, six furlongs; Rockaway Selling Stakes, $1,000 guaranteed, seven furlongs; and the Fushing Selling Stakes, $1,000 guaranteed, one mile.

For the three-year-olds the offerings are the Arverne, $1,500 guaranteed, six furlongs, and the Fushing Selling Stakes, $1,000 guaranteed, one mile is the place of the club, with these exceptions the stakes are the Canarsie, $1,500 guaranteed, seven furlongs; Rockaway Selling Stakes, $1,000 guaranteed, one nile.

For the three-year-olds the offerings are the Arverne, $1,500 guaranteed, six furlongs.

The two-year-old stakes are the Canarsie, $1,500 guarante

TAMPA RACE-GOERS SEE GOOD SPORT.

Tampa, Fla., February 25.—Local race-goers were treated to some excellent sport this afternoon. The card was one of the best offerings of the season. The feature race, at five and a half furlongs, brought together some of the best short-distance racers at the course and resulted in the lowering of the track record when La Salle, a recent acquisition of R. F. Carman's, traversed the distance in 1:009, La Reine Hindoo landing second place from Jack Dennerlen. The race was marred somewhat by the failure of the barrier to work properly, which accounted for Jack Laxson and Flashing being virtually left at the post, Jack Laxson had been backed into favortitism.

another exciting contest was furnished by Fundamental and Tamar in the third. Fundamental cat out a fast pace, but just managed to win from Tamar. The opener witnessed the downfall of a Carman juvenile when Juvenee was heaten off. R. D. Williams' Delena, backed from 20 to 1 to 6 to 1, led her opposition throughout and won by a wide margin. Sir Ashton, another favorite from the Carman stable, was downed in the second when Eminola got up after a hard drive to head him in the closing strides. Tackle and Belle of the Ball fought it out desperately in the fifth and the former won by a nose. Pirate Diana outpaced her opponents in the closing dash and won from the heavily-backed Harting.

The Southern Jockey Club will hold a meeting at Jacksonville tomorrow to pass upon the application for dates at Pensacola filed by Manager Bickers. Carlos Acoita, a wealthy Cuban who is here to buy horses for racing and breeding purposes in the Cuban capital, secured this morning Easley, Ethel Martin, Tommy Wood, Jupiter, Vira, Barleycorn, Malecon and Madison Square. He is after fifty or more at reasonable prices.

The Donohue-MacKenzie controversy over the mare Refined was settled this morning by the latter paying Donohue $100.

GILBERT ROSE RUNS AWAY AT BARRIER.

GILBERT ROSE RUNS AWAY AT BARRIER.

San Francisco, Cal. February 25.—Gilbert Rose, favorite for the Irvington Handicap at Oakland today, ran away before the start and ruined his chances. The well-backed Raleigh P. D. took the lead at once and won from Daddy Gip and Coppertown. Fine weather prevailed, but the track was sloppy owing to a heavy rain last night. The Bedwell colors were carried to victory by Lord Clinton and Hannibal Bey. Helen Barbee romped home in the two-year-old dash.

Captain Edward Hackett telegraphed from Juare for eleven stalls. He will arrive Saturday with his lorses.

H. M. Mason decided not to take Application.

lorses.

H. M. Mason decided not to take Angleface and H. G. Bedwell then sold him to Johnson & Gray. J. Barnes bought Thomas Calhoun from Mr. Bedwell. Miss Naomi and Annie Wells were sold by L. F. Rousey to T. A. Albright. C. Morton bought Rosevale from D. S. Fountain and Corlel was sold by D. Conley to H. C. Maurer.

Jockey Kennedy, who rode at Juarez, has arrived here and will ride as a free lance.

OFFICIALS FOR JAMESTOWN MEETING.

Norfolk, Va., February 25.—It was announced today that active preparations for the opening of the Jamestown Jockey Club meeting on April 1 would begin next week, when a carload of horses will start from Juarez for the Jamestown track.

The Judges and other officials who will serve in various capacities have been announced. Edward Cole, of New York, will be presiding judge, with Fred W. Gerhardy, of Nashville, as associate judge. Mars Cassidy will be the starter; Ernest Hall, of Baltimore, paddock and patrol judge; J. Hosford Smith, of New York, clerk of scales, and Henry J. Morris, of New York, steward.

Racing will continue from April 1 to 14, with the possibility of an extension.

HITCHCOCK TRAINER PASSES AWAY.

New York, February 25.—Charles Kiernan, for several seasons trainer of the steeplechase stable of Thomas Hitchcock, Jr. died of pleuro-pneumonia in St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, yesterday. Trainer Kiernan was one of the most successful bandlers of steeplechasers of recent years. It was he who trained Good and Plenty, probably the best jumper ever seen in this country. Hylas is another that Kiernan sent to the races for Mr. Hitchcock, while others that he handled successfully were California King and Phantom.

TEXAS LAW TO BE TESTED.

Dailas, Texas, February 25.—The Texas law prohibiting bookmaking and poolselling on horse races will be attacked in the courts. Jack Hayes, of Denison, who was recently arrested for betting on a race outside the state, is to press the case before the Court of Criminal Appeals, the highest state tribunal, next Wednesday. He attacks the constitutionality of the law on the ground that its caption is not broad enough to cover all the law's provisions.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The stallions which will do duty at Major Thomas J. Carson's Dixiana Stud this spring are Scintii-lant II., Ormicant and Griffon.

Secretary W. P. Fraser, of the Ontario Joekey Club, has been judging terriers at the New England Kennel Club's bench show in Boston this week. Mrs. Lucy Murphy, widow of the famous colored jockey. Isaac Murphy, died at her home at Lexington, Ky., yesterday. Murphy died fourteen years ago.

The first foal begot by Richard Croker's Derby winner, Orby, came to hand a few days ago in Ireland. It is a chestnut colt, out of Grand Geraldine, by Desmond.

Plans have been approved by the English Jockey Club whereby the Doncaster race track is to have a straight course and there will be consequently an alteration in the St. Leger route.

It is reported that C. R. Ellison will be a bidder at P. T. Chinn's dispersal sale next week with the idea of again entering the ranks of racing owners after a retirement of less than a year.

Winner—Br. c. by Mexican—Solicy Lass (trained by P. M. Civill).
Went to post at 3:08. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Zacatecas was dropped in behind the leader and saved until rounding the far turn, then drew away into an easy lead at the end. Kid, badly outrun early, gained steadily in the last quarter. Howdy Howdy could not keep pace with the leaders for the first half and tired when it came to a hard drive. Lucetta showed the most speed for a half mile, then tired. Whim ran fairly well. The winner, entered for $1,000, was bid up to $1,600 and bought in.

Overweights—Whim, 2½ pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Ben Strome—Veneta (trained by F. J. Stevens).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Veneta Strome, evidently a good mud runner, rushed around the leaders soon after the start and drew away into an easy lead, but was ridden out through the last furlong. Guy Fisher ran well, but swerved over to the inside in the last sixteenth and was hard ridden all of the last furlong. An Reardon ran a good race and is worth remembering. Oghwaga seemingly did not fancy the going, but finished fairly well. Universe finished gamely. Stafford showed early speed, but quit badly.
